

Glenn Grevengeod learned to practice law in Chicago. He began his career in 1986 as an Assistant Attorney General at the Illinois Attorney General's office. He entered private practice in 1990. Practicing in downtown Chicago, he had offices at 150 N. Michigan Avenue and 77 W. Wacker Drive.

Immediately before moving to Vero Beach in 2003, Glenn worked for a Chicago based charitable foundation, The Barnabas Foundation, focusing on high-end estate planning for charitable donors across the country.

Throughout his career, Glenn has been actively involved in community service, serving on over 20 boards of various charities and civic organizations. In Vero Beach, he has held leadership positions in several local organizations, including past board presidencies of the Planned Giving Council of Indian River, The Exchange Club of Vero Beach, Carenet of Indian River County, BNI, and Toastmasters.

He was ordained as a deacon at Pullman Christian Reformed Church on January 3, 1988 and ordained as an Elder at Grace Presbyterian Church in the Chicago area on February 16, 1996. He has been serving as an elder in one church, church plant or another since then. He was Clerk of Session for Christ the King Presbyterian Church in Vero Beach from 2005 to 2025. Glenn has been married to his wife Mariel for over 35 years. They have three grown children, Dania, Lincoln and Carissa.

Professionally, he is a member of the Indian River County, Florida, and Illinois State Bar Associations. He is admitted to practice in all Florida and Illinois State and Federal Courts, He is admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, The Seventh Circuit Federal Court of Appeals, and is a member of the Federal Trial Bar for the Northern District of Illinois. While Glenn has retained his Illinois License to practice law, his practice is currently exclusively in Florida.
