

Peggy is a dynamic leader with a rich legacy of empowering others through executive leadership development, biblical counseling, women's studies, serving churches, non-profit organizations, and seminaries worldwide. Currently, she is the Director of Counseling at The Women's Refuge in Vero Beach, Florida and a Biblical Counselor with Anchored Virtual Ministries. Her expertise is built on decades of cross-cultural leadership training and biblical counseling across South America, the United States, Europe, Africa, Asia, and the Middle East.

Peggy holds a BA in Christian Ministry and an MA in Religion from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and earned her Doctor of Ministry from Western Seminary in Portland, Oregon. She has inspired students as an adjunct professor at Western Seminary, Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Calvary Baptist Seminary, and Dallas Theological Seminary, teaching impactful courses such as Women and Leadership, The Role of Women in the Church, and Pastoral Care for Survivors of Human Sex Trafficking. As a faculty member and mentor for the Christian Leadership Alliance, Peggy extends her influence by equipping emerging leaders and shaping transformative ministry programs.

Her doctoral dissertation models spiritual restorative care for survivors of sexual abuse, reflecting her commitment to help, hope, and healing in Jesus. Whether speaking, teaching, or writing, Peggy is passionate about engaging others in meaningful conversations on identity and purpose, deepening understanding of God's Word and culture, fostering practical service leadership, and empowering others with actionable strategies to make a lasting impact for Jesus Christ.
